Panel

Fatimid, 5th century AH / 11th century CE

Wood

W: 4 cm; H: 10 cm

Inv. no. 16343

Small wooden panel, tapering toward the top and divided into three fields. The central field is occupied by an elegantly carved gazelle with curving antlers, set upon a simple vegetal-scroll ground, while the flanking fields feature more dense yet restrained scrolling vegetal motifs. The composition conveys a sense of natural, flowing movement.
