Panel

From the cemeteries of ʻAyn al-Sira, Area 3

Tulunid or Abbasid, mid-2nd to early 4th centuries AH / 9th-early 10th centuries CE

Wood

W: 40.5 cm; H: 30 cm

Inv. no. 9898

Wooden panel, decorated at its center with a prominent beveled composition: a central seven-lobed leaf with downward-curling lateral lobes, flanked by abstracted curling leaves and vines. The design is carved in relief with deep pierced elements, incised lines, and small circular bosses scattered across the surface.

Nadim Foundation ©® 2026