Frieze

From the cemeteries of ʻAyn al-Sira

Byzantine or Early Islamic, late 1st century BH-1st century AH / 6th-7th centuries CE

Wood

W: 181 cm; H: 26 cm

Inv. no. 9519

Wooden frieze, decorated with prominent relief-carved scrolls featuring lobed leaves and buds, centered upon a medallion with an inscribed motif of uncertain attribution. The panel was once likely painted, though the original details of the central motif are now obscured.

Nadim Foundation ©® 2026